

Paid Family and Medical Leave (PFML) is dominating the conversation.

Are you prepared?

What are the similarities and differences between states?

We are thrilled to invite you to our upcoming Continuing Education webinar, “The Evolution of Paid Family and Medical Leave (PFML),” on Thursday, February 22, 2024 at 11 am EST.

At the end of this class, you will receive 1 CE credit.

Paid Family and Medical Leave, or PFML, seems to be dominating conversations in market as employers are required to understand new laws and how to fit PFML contributions into their budget. Brokers have become the trusted go-to for their customers to provide guidance on how to help with compliance while still providing a benefit program to support their customers' workforce.

You'll learn:

- The common elements of PFML
- Program differences across state programs
- Emerging trends
