

Sharing His Word through Online Classes

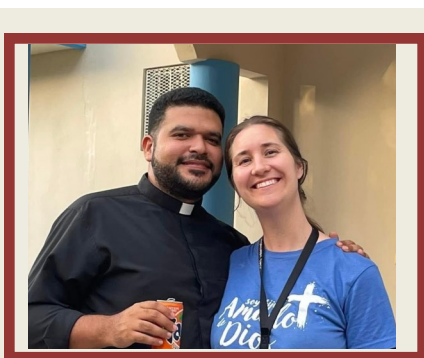

How are we sharing about Jesus?

We are sharing about Jesus through online English classes. Over 175 Puerto Ricans signed up to learn about our classes. Fifty joined the first day, February 17th. By the end of the 4 weeks, twenty-five students remained faithful. We had ten volunteer “teachers”, members of LCMS churches from all over the United States (and one from our sister church the Lutheran Church - Canada!) These classes include basic English conversation practice and a bible story reading and questions.

One time the story was about Jesus calling the disciples to follow Him. So we ask, “Why do we follow Jesus?” And we practice says, “We follow Jesus because He is my Savior, my friend, the Son of God, the Good Shepherd, etc”. One of our pastors prays before class, and we invite all to church.

Ruth greets new online students and explains about the program.

On March 19th, we gathered with mission supporting visitors. Church members gave a walking tour of our church property to explain the weekly activities at each location and how we are learning more about our Heavenly Father, through His Word at these events. You are invited to come for the next one!
