

Volunteers Needed

As the war in Ukraine continues to unfold, the humanitarian crisis calls for increased support.

If you are a native Russian and/or Ukrainian-speaking professional, you may be the best positioned to answer this call for help.

Specific skill sets and desired backgrounds include:

- Education (all ages-formal and informal)
- Mental health and social work
- Spanish
- Knowledge of Jewish culture and traditions
- Experience providing support to older adults
- Experience working with at-risk populations

Volunteers are responsible for covering their own travel. Volunteers' accommodations, insurance, and meals are covered and JFNA provides a post-service stipend to volunteers.
