

Part Time Youth Minister

Holy Covenant United Methodist Church (HCUMC), Carrollton, TX, seeks a Youth Ministry for a part-time position. The ideal candidate, while displaying a servant's heart, is experienced and passionate about the spiritual formation of young people in middle and high school as well as demonstrating a proficiency at planning and executing on-going youth ministry.

Essential qualifications

- Commitment to lead a life of Christian witness
  - Must have a respectable social media presence (example: no cussing, no inappropriate images, no overly controversial posts)
- Commitment to ongoing Mission, Vision and Strategy of HCUMC
- Excellent organizational skills, including advanced planning, consistency, communication
- High School Diploma is the minimum required education level with some Bible ministry training
- Experience in leading youth ministry
- LGBTQ+ friendly

Work Area Responsibilities

- Discipleship Formation
- Intentionally plan Sunday school and UMYF curriculum to facilitate the understanding of and relationship with God for all youth ages
- Communicate with youth volunteers and parents on a weekly basis
- Administrative duties as needed for scheduling events, communicating with church at large and reports for Ad Council as requested

Compensation and Time Requirements

Salary is commensurate with education and experience. Depending on final negotiated hours, this position may require weekday, evenings, and weekend work. Sunday mornings through early afternoon are a minimum requirement for physical presence at HCUMC, as well as attendance and leadership at retreats and mission trips.

Please contact: Rev Cheryl Murphy cmurphy@hcumc.org or call 972 492-2432

Holy Covenant United Methodist Church is welcoming and open to all people.

Black or White, Yellow or Brown, you are welcome here.

Rich or Poor, Young or Old, you are welcome here.

Gay or Straight, Citizen or Sojourner, you are welcome here.