

Celebrate Diversity at Bells Mill

Friday, May 6, 2022, 5-7 p.m.

Bells Mill Blacktop

Featuring a performance at 5:30 by the

Choy Wun Lion Dance Team

with traditional ceremonies, demonstrations, and photo opportunities

In Chinese culture, the Lion symbolizes power, wisdom, and superiority. An important ritual around lunar new year, the Lion dance is performed to bring prosperity and good luck for the upcoming year.

Cultural Displays ♦ Crafts ♦ Traditional Attire Parade
International Candy Table

Food Trucks: Big Greek on Wheels, Hangry Panda, and Churros Inc.

How to Participate:

- Wear traditional attire! Join the parade around the blacktop.
- Host a Country Table to share what you love about your favorite country, including symbols, artifacts, games, traditions, or food. To sign up, visit <https://tinyurl.com/4m3p723x> by Wednesday, May 4, 2022.
- Volunteer to help! Volunteers are needed for set up, craft stations, and cleanup. See link above to sign up. International candy donations welcome!
- Just come and have fun! Everyone is welcome.

For questions, email bmes.intlfest@gmail.com. Watch for updates on the Bear Post or bellsmill.org. Sponsored by the Bells Mill Parent Teacher Association.